She further stated individuals have asked to meet with individual Commissioners or the Board in a separate meeting and they cannot do that because of open meetings laws, and because all of them are subject to be a part of Officer Manney's appeal hearing; they cannot meet with anyone who might be concerned with the issue or could jeopardize the panel. She stated the appeal hearing for Officer Manney is being scheduled for the first week in February, that no specific date has been chosen yet, and there will be more information to come. She also stated Room 301-A is open for overflow with a television available for anyone to follow this meeting. She lastly stated that anyone who wishes to speak during the public comment section needs to fill out a request and everyone is limited to two minutes so everyone has the opportunity to speak.
