MILWAUKEE POLICE SUPPORT ALDERMAN, RESIDENTS' EFFORTS TO ENGAGE COMMUNITY

Milwaukee Police Chief Edward A. Flynn today expressed his support for the efforts of Ald. Joe Davis and his constituency to ask for community cooperation regarding shootings that have occurred on the northwest side of the city.

“I commend Ald. Davis and the members of the Grantosa Heights Neighborhood Association in their efforts to encourage the community to assist the Milwaukee Police during our investigation of the violent crime that has occurred in the area,” Flynn said. “While we have made some arrests in these incidents, we appreciate that our elected officials and the community join together with the police to help stop crime, fear and disorder in our public spaces and in our neighborhoods.”
