Much Anticipated Anti-Crime Plan For Milwaukee Issued By Ald. Donovan Public Safety Committee Chair's Plan Drafted With Input From Sheriff Clarke, Retired MPD Captain Glenn Frankovis

A tough multifaceted crime-fighting plan – entitled Enough Is Enough! A Plan to Restore Order to the Streets of Milwaukee – was released publicly today by Ald. Bob Donovan. The report (see attachment), formulated with input from Milwaukee County Sheriff David Clarke and retired Milwaukee Police Department Capt. Glenn Frankovis, includes several common sense proposed strategies to empower police and law enforcement and to get tough on criminals who have taken over many areas of the city.

“We must act now to turn the tide to take the fight to the criminals and lawbreakers – they’ve been winning for far too long and we’ve let them do it,” said Ald. Donovan. “I hope these fundamental common sense proposals spark debate and move us toward taking steps that will make Milwaukee safe once again.”
